Questions students ask

How long does it take to study HIV/AIDS management at BriteEducation?
HIV/AIDS Management: Diploma (Levels 4–5): 2 years · Level 6: 3 years in total.

Can I study HIV/AIDS management part-time or online?
Yes. Classes run on weekday, weekend, evening or online schedules, so you can study while working or from outside Harare through live online classes.

Is HIV/AIDS management at BriteEducation a recognised UK qualification?
Yes. HIV/AIDS Management is an ABMA Education qualification (Diploma Level 4, Diploma Level 5, Diploma Level 6). ABMA Education is a UK awarding organisation recognised and regulated by Ofqual, and BriteEducation is an ABMA Education Recognised Centre, centre number 2851. Levels 4, 5 and 6 take one year each (2 years to Level 5, 3 years to Level 6), examined at the end of each level.

Can I go to university after the HIV/AIDS Management diploma?
Yes. The ABMA Diploma Level 6 is at the same level as the final year of a UK bachelor's degree, so graduates can apply for a one-year top-up degree, and ABMA lists top-up master's and MBA routes. Each university sets its own entry requirements; our admissions team helps you plan the route before you enrol.
